Through the 3 weeks we will explore the many artistic possibilities offered by layering a variety of different painting mediums. Thinking carefully about more accurate, subtle use of colour, tone and texture to produce several ongoing pieces of landscape, which have balanced composition with both busy and calm areas of surface treatment. Evocative by nature, rather than predictably detailed. Bring your own materials - a very heavyweight watercolour paper or mount card in white as a support,(A3 size or bigger,) white wax candle, watercolour paints, cling film, scalpel blade, med. size hogs hair brushes, and one smaller watercolour brush, soft drawing pastels if you have them, old plate or palette, acrylic paints and or texturing medium. Also, rags, cloths and an old shirt to wear.

Jan Hill (B.A.Hons, RSA) has been a working professional artist since the age of 21, and covers a wide scope of know-how in her varied career as a designer, illustrator, commissioned watercolourist, abstract 'explorer' and fully qualified art tutor for 40 years. She brings a fun, light hearted aspect to her subjects, but backs it up with much sound knowledge of Art.

This workshop is suitable for those who would like to get painting with oils. It is great fun and during the workshop, you will paint in oils and receive structured practical tuition. If you have attended before, please do come again, it will be great to see you.... always a different picture!

Streetscenes and Buildings in bold watercolour and ink with artist Tony Player on Sunday 9th January, 2022 10.30 – 3.30pm. £40pp 6 places.

In this class you will paint from a photograph of your favourite place, street or building. For example Alford Market Place or somewhere you like to visit often. Relax and enjoy learning to paint starting at the very beginning for those who have little or no experience of watercolour painting. Please bring your watercolour paints, paper, brushes, pens etc.

Don't worry if you don't have all the materials – I will have a little to share from my stock of art stuff. Please bring some uni-pin fine pens in sizes 0.1, 0.3 and 0.7. I will take you through the stages of preparing your picture from a pencil sketch to painting and ink work which we do in a layering technique. Please bring a photograph in colour of the picture you want to achieve. You will all be painting somewhere you like so there will be plenty of opportunity to share and compare the pictures as we have a good day painting.
