Painting Perspective and People with Anne Barnham Thursday 12th November 2020, 10.30 – 3.30 £25pp

There is no need to be anxious about 'Perspective' I have a very simple, clear way of explaining it to you so that it makes sense and you can happily incorporate buildings and streets into your paintings. When it comes to 'people' this is not life drawing or portraiture! I am going to show you how to populate a painting, people in a street, down a lane or in a park. Please bring your usual painting items. Brushes, paints, tissues, water pot, paper, and pencil. I always bring a few items for sale, spare paper, paints, brushes etc in case they are needed!. For further information about the course, please contact me on 01526 320626, annebarnham@hotmail.co.uk, www.annebarnhamsart.com

We hope you are ready to enjoy classes again and our tutors look forward to seeing you. All classes are smaller – and all safety measures are in place including individual workstations or a place at a large table well apart from the other students. For all classes please bring your choice of face covering, cup and spoon and a packed lunch if required. Tea and coffee provided.
